Owing to previous hostile attacks the position of the line his bn. took over was very uncertain. By a personal night reconnaissance he was able to adjust the line, and later, when the enemy commenced a bombing attack, he again went forward to reconnoitre the position, which was very critical, and then organised a successful attack, driving back the enemy and taking prisoners. His courage throughout was magnificent".

2nd bar L.G. 16.9.1918. "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He held a position against superior enemy forces until relieved, and made dispositions which held up the enemy for a considerable time. Cork, and on the return journey, at about 7 p.m., the boat was capsized. Seeing that one of the soldiers was unable to swim (he sank twice before he could be reached) Sergeant DANIELS swam to his assistance, took him to the upturned boat and having enabled him to hold on to her, endeavoured to assist the other soldier, but unfortunately was unable to find him. Attracted by the men's shouts a boat's crew put off from Spike Island, rescued the soldier from the boat, picked up the sergeant, who was much exhausted by his exertions, and then searched for the missing man, but without success. For their services the crew of the boat were rewarded by the local military authorities. Sergeant DANIELS has since proceeded to South Africa on active service.

SALE CATALOGUES

On the average we issue twelve or more Coin Catalogues and three Naval & Military Medal Catalogues each year, some of which are usually of Sales of important Collections.

CATALOGUE SUBSCRIPTIONS

Sale Catalogues, frequently illustrated, are normally posted to Subscribers about three weeks prior to the date of Sale.

Lists of "Prices Bid" are issued after each Sale, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to value. The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading. The Lists of "Prices Bid" will probably be enclosed in a following Sale Catalogue.

AIR MAIL POSTAGE

To allow subscribers resident outside Europe time to submit Postal Bids, Sale Catalogues will, if desired, be sent by Air Mail. Air Mail postage is not, however, included in the Subscription Rate and the cost must be borne by the Subscriber. In such cases a deposit against the cost is required.
